HENRY GUTHRIE AND JOHN LANE MASON,
THEIR ANCESTORS, DESCENDANTS AND COLLATERAL KIN.

TO THE DESCENDANTS:

The following pages may contain some inaccuracies, although I have tried to state as facts only things known.

In each generation, some whole families have been omitted - not intentionally, but because I have been unable to locate them.

If each reader will send me corrections which should be made in any part of my statements, and additions to the ancestors or descendants of either Henry Guthrie or John Lane Mason, it will be greatly appreciated.

Also, especially appreciated will be information concerning the ancestors, brothers and sisters, and descendants of Henry Guthrie, Nancy Ann Shackelford, Isaac Mason and Parthena Hall.

Further information about Peter Deel and Sydney Snyder should also be interesting to all descendants of John Lane Mason and I will be glad to assemble any facts you readers can give me.

RELATIONSHIP

As to the varying degrees of kinship between any two of the descendants of Henry Guthrie, it must be counted from one up through the generations to the nearest common ancestor and then down to the other.

Generally speaking, those listed in the Third Generation (unless they are brothers and sisters) related in the second degree) are first cousins, related in the fourth degree. Those listed in the Seventh Generation, whose nearest common ancestor is Henry Guthrie, are related to each other as fifth cousins, or in the twelfth degree.

Following is a family tree of John Lane Mason (of the Third Generation) and a blank sheet for convenience in linking to the Third Generation the various branches of the Seventh Generation.

SAX11261153

JOHN LANE MASON

John Lane Mason was born February 22, 1827, in Nashville, Tennessee. He was the fifth child of Thomas Mason, who was born February 25, 1792, and Eleanor Thurston Guthrie, who was born January 5, 1801, in Nolensville, near Nashville, Tennessee.

His parents, Thomas and Eleanor, were married February 26, 1818, and lived in or near Nashville until after the birth of their thirteenth and last child in 1844. Then the family, including John Lane Mason, moved to Illinois. According to the autobiography of Thomas Deel Mason (1851-1916), the family moved to Illinois to "get away from negro slavery". Thomas Mason (b 1792) was a stone mason, a cooper and a farmer. He died in Schuyler County, Illinois, December 31, 1847.

John Lane Mason was a cooper and a farmer. On March 22, 1849, in Schuyler County, Illinois, he married Sarah Ann Deel, the third child of Peter and Sydney Snyder Deel. Sarah Ann Deel was born February 22, 1831, in Clinton County, Illinois, and raised in Schuyler County. Her father was also a farmer. He started to California in the spring of 1851 and never returned.

Soon after his marriage (1849) John Lane Mason went into the lumber business. His partners and associates were George Frisbee, Samuel Thompson and James Thompson. About 1855 he sold out to Frisbee and John K. Bennett.

Until 1864, John Lane and Sarah Ann Deel Mason lived in Rushville, Schuyler County,

Illinois. Their first six children were born there, and probably the following picture was taken there. (This print was made from an old_tintype.)

About 1864, the family moved to Miami County, Kansas. Their four youngest children were born there (about 1¼ miles from the town of New Lancaster). It is believed the old farm house built by John Lane Mason is still in use. He retired and went to Philomath, Oregon in September, 1893, leaving his sons, Roie and Lincoln, to care for the farm until they could sell it.

The New Lancaster place was sold to strangers just before John Lane Mason's death in 1894.

While on the Kansas farm, he was a successful stock breeder and produced fine sorghum. He raised quality fruit, continually budding and hybridizing to improve it, and established the first fruit tree nursery in Kansas. He took an active part in the work of the Kansas State Horticultural Association.

According to his daughter Belle (Mrs. Horace A. Lewis), he and a Dr. Hoover of Paoli were good friends and worked together untiringly to advance the Prohibition movement in Kansas. His grandsons remember that he advocated moderation and temperance, even as to sweet cider when the supply seemed limitless.

After John Lane and Sarah Ann Deel Mason left New Lancaster, Kansas, they visited some of their children and then established their last home in Philomath, Oregon, where he died March 5, 1894.

Sarah Ann Deel Mason lived almost thirty years after the death of her husband. She returned to Kansas and lived with her son John at Louisburg and at Gas City, Kansas. Later she lived with her sister Elizabeth in Clinton, Missouri, and then she again went to Oregon. There she lived for a while with her daughter, Mettie (Mrs. Sam Gibbons). Her last years were spent with her oldest daughter, Sarah (Mrs. William Bays).

It was there the following picture was taken. It shows five generations:

The five generations in this picture are:

Sarah Ann Deel Mason
Sarah Mason Bays
Adella Bays Jensen
Ethel Christina Jensen Borba
Lucille Borba Lyons

Sarah Ann Deel Mason was buried beside her husband at Corvalis, Oregon. At the time of her death, September 12, 1923, according to family tradition, there were 105 living descendants of John Lane Mason and Saran Ann Deel Mason, including nine children, 40 grandchildren, 52 great grandchildren, and 4 great great grandchildren.

John Lane Mason's grandparents were:

(a) Isaac Mason (b January 31, 1753) and Parthena Hall (b June 6, 1756).

It is not known where they were born or where they married. They left Delaware prior to 1781, for it was then that Isaac returned to Delaware and assisted in moving Parthena's widowed mother, Rebecca Story Hall, and Parthena's brothers and sister (Asa, Nathan, Jordan, Rynear, Allen and Rebecca) from Duck Creek Cross Roads, Delaware, to the forks of the Cheat River, a few miles below Morgantown, West Virginia. (Butcher's History of Upper Monongahela Valley, ;ages 457,1098; Biographical Cyclopedia of Monongalia, Marion and Taylor Counties of West Virginia,-Sylvanus Wilson Hall). There is no mention of Parthena as participating in this move, and it is probable that she remained in the West with the two babies previously born.

It is not known where Isaac and Parthena lived. After 1810, one Isaac Mason lived on a place (known for many years as "The Mason Place") in Cross Water, Giles County, Tennessee. (Early History of Giles County, Tennessee). This Isaac Mason may have been a son of the one who married Parthena Hall and became the father of Thomas Mason who married Eleanor Thurston Guthrie. ???

The Bible of Eleanor Guthrie Mason (in the possession of one of her granddaughters, Mrs. Hoover in Kansas) indicates that all ten of the children of Isaac and Parthena Hall Mason (of whom Thomas was the eighth) were born in Tennessee.

Their children were:

	Date born
Polly Mason	Oct. 20, 1775
Abram Mason	Oct., 22, 1778
Isaac Mason	April 16, 1782
Jacob Mason	March, 3, 1784
Katty Mason	January 31, 1786
Rebecca Mason	December 15, 1787
Joseph Mason	February 3, 1790
Thomas Mason	February 25, 1792
Elizabeth Mason	February 11, 1794
Benner Hall "	December 23, 1797

Nothing is known about any of Thomas Mason's brothers or sisters.

(b) Henry Guthrie (1754-1837) and Nancy Ann Shackelford (1779-1870).

Both were born in Virginia (place unknown). They were married November 24,1796, at the Shackelford home in Madison County, Kentucky. Soon after their marriage, they established their home at Nolensville, about 15 miles from Nashville, then in Davidson County (now in Williamson County), in Tennessee.

Henry and Nancy Ann had 16 ~~xx~~ children, of which John Lane Mason's mother, Eleanor Thurston Guthrie, was the fourth.

During the Revolution, Henry fought as a private in the North Carolina Line, under Captains Waldon, Turner and Hargrove.

May 1, 1780, Henry Guthrie signed the Articles of Agreement or Compact of Government between the Settlers on the Cumberland. At that time, Davidson County, Tennessee, was a part of North Carolina. (Clayton, History of Davidson County, Tennessee, pages 32-35.)

About 1791, when Nashville's Salt Springs became unproductive, Henry Guthrie and his future brother-in-law, Frederick Binkley (for Judge John McNairy) drilled a well over 160 feet deep, by means of metal drills fitted to heavy wooden poles, and casing to keep out other water. Instead of the salt water hoped for, the stream tapped was sulphur water of unpleasant taste. The Sulphur Well was still well known in Nashville almost a hundred years later. (Tennessee Mag. Vol. 2, page 38).

Both Henry and Nancy Ann died in Tennessee, he in 1837 and she in 1870.

John Lane Mason's great grandparents were:

(a) Masons unknown. Two Isaac Masons of approximately the correct age were:

1- The first child of Noah and Lydia Lancaster Mason, who were married June 14, 1752, in Providence, R. I. They had at least eight younger children.

2- The brother of Samuel Mason, the famous - or infamous - "Outlaw of Cave-in-Rock", who was beheaded by his own gang about 1803, and who was said to have been deliberately deleted from the family records of his Virginia relatives. Samuel was born in 1750, fought with valor in the Revolution, and had a "respectable brother" named Isaac.

(b) Thomas Hall (1724-1772) and Rebecca Story (d Dec. 15, 1812, W. Va.)

Thomas Hall's known brothers were Moses and David (ages and whereabouts unknown).

(c) William Guthrie (d 1832) and Eleanor Abbott (d 1816).

Nothing known about them or their other children.

(d) Roger Shackelford (1744-1824) and Nancy Ann Carter.

Both were born in Virginia (place unknown). They were married October 13, 1767 (place unknown). They moved about 1792 to Madison County, Kentucky, where Nancy Ann Carter Shackelford died.

In 1801, Roger married Sally Laird. Roger died at South Union, Kentucky, in 1824.
